NUTRITION TIP OF THE WEEK FROM THE KSC FITNESS CENTERS: Basic Features of a Nutrition Plan. With so many “name diets” currently proclaiming to be “the best diet” it's no wonder that many people become confused or even jaded in their approach toward nutrition. What one “expert” swears by is contradicted by another “guru's” commandments. This is a disservice to the athlete, bodybuilder, or any person who simply desires to look and feel better. What sound nutrition basically comes down to is providing for your body's needs according to your specific goals and objectives. It's a cause-and-effect issue and sooner or later one will reap the benefits (or liabilities) of one's choices. It is about what you do and don't consume (energy in) and expend (energy out) on a daily basis that determines the outcome. Planning ahead and being consistent will help in following a life-long healthy nutrition plan. NUTRITION TIP OF THE WEEK FROM THE KSC FITNESS CENTERS: All Wrapped Up. Are you all wrapped up in the latest food fad? The latest craze is the wrap—everything is wrapped in tortillas, tacos, pitas and pastry shells. But how healthful are these new sandwiches? Wraps can provide a quick meal, but often provide the calories of two. Wraps can have from four hundred to fifteen hundred calories, depending on the size and the filling—so before you jump on the bandwagon, check out the wrap. How large is the wrap? Check out how the fillings are prepared. Wraps can also provide a whopping amount of sodium, some as high as thirty five hundred milligrams—more than the recommended daily intake. Make your own wrap to control calories, fat, sodium and size. Load wraps with fresh veggies, a moderate amount of lean meat and use sauces or dressings sparingly. Get the wrap you want. Except for emergencies, you are expected to request leave in advance and obtain your supervisor's approval. In cases of emergency absence, call in and notify your supervisor of the circumstances as soon as possible after the start of the workday, but no later than 4 hours after the beginning of the workday. Failure to properly request and obtain approval of leave may result in the absence being charged to "Absence Without Leave" and could also lead to disciplinary action. Those who are earning annual leave above maximum accumulations limits must plan use of annual leave to avoid loss of one or more days at the end of the year. (BA-B).

NASA recognizes the right of its employees to form, join, and assist any employee organization, or to refrain from any such activity, and to exercise these rights freely and without penalty or reprisal. This right also extends to participation in the management of the employee organization and to acting as an employee organizational representative, except where such activity would result in a conflict of interest with the official duties of an employee. (BA-B)

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES HEALTH BENEFITS EXTENSION OF COVERAGE: The Federal Employees Health Benefits Amendments Act (PL 100-654) has provided separated employees, certain dependent children, and former spouses the option of keeping their Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) plan for specific periods of time. Under the provisions, employees who leave the Government, either voluntarily or involuntarily, are eligible to continue FEHB coverage for 18 months if (1) the employee was enrolled in the FEHB at time of separation; and, (2) the employee was NOT fired because of "gross misconduct." This includes employees who retire and are not eligible to continue FEHB coverage as annuitants. Children who become age 22 and ex-spouses may continue coverage for up to 36 months provided they had coverage under a Federal employee at the time of the event. These individuals have continuation of coverage for 31 days at no cost to them. However, within 60 days of the event, they must submit paperwork to continue their FEHB. For more information, contact Kathleen Ellis at 867-2002 or Lisa Fowler at 867-1883. (BA-B)

EMAIL USERS: Email is an informal communication and is not to be used as the primary way to document official Agency business.
